

Test Account Recovery:

1. Open a new App instance
2. Navigate to the create account page
 - a. Confirm there is a list of security questions to choose from (Acceptance Criteria #1)
 - b. Select a question and attempt to create account without entering an answer
 - i. Should receive an error that answer is empty
 - c. Select a question and enter an answer, then create an account
3. After navigating back to the login page, click on the forgot password button
 - a. Confirm that a new window opens with a workflow to recover the account (Acceptance Criteria #2)
 - b. Enter a user name that does not exist and attempt to receive a security question
 - i. Should receive an error that the user does not exist
 - c. Enter the user name of the account you want to recover and click “Show Security Question”
 - i. A security question should appear with a text box to receive an answer
 - d. Answer the question with an incorrect answer
 - i. Should receive an error stating that the answer is incorrect (Acceptance Criteria #6)
 - e. Answer the question with the correct answer
 - i. A new set of text boxes and a button to create a new password should appear (Acceptance Criteria #3)
 - f. Attempt to create a new password, except make the password invalid (less than 4 characters or do not match the password and confirm password fields)
 - i. An error message should pop up notifying the user that the password is invalid (Acceptance Criteria #5)
 - g. Create a new, valid password and click “Save New Password”
 - h. Navigate back to the login page and attempt to login with the old password
 - i. Should receive an error indicating that username or password is incorrect
 - i. Now attempt to login in with the newly created password
 - i. Should be able to login to the home page of the application (Acceptance Criteria #4)